5) The draft Bye Laws do not seem to have been modelled on the lines of any of the sanctioned Bye laws on this subject Bye Law No 3 which contains the main provisions is not clearly worded and a number of corrections have been made to the typed matter. Bye-Laws 5 and 6 (b) contain typing as well as verbal mistakes

6) It is perhaps necessary to recast or at least to correct, the present Bye laws on the lines of the sanctioned Bye laws of similar nature This is a matter for the decision of the administrative Section

7) If approved, the file will be returned to the administrative Section

8) The Administrative Secty may in the first instance examine the bye-laws from the administrative point of view and determine their suitability It may then be sent to the Legislative Dept for scrutiny from the legal point of view

12) In this bye-laws, the first proviso which relates to the registration of more than two vehicles has been deleted by the Administrative Sectt as being unnecessary with the omission of this proviso, there will be two provisos only

Draft Bye-Laws of Tupton Town Council necessary for the numbering and registration of vehicles

1303/11 as now existing in this bye-law with this modification, this bye law reads alright

13) Bye-Law No 5

It is stated in this bye law that the registration of a vehicle shall be made on payment of tax as prescribed by the Taxation Rules it is not known what rates have been prescribed in those rules. But all such rates must be consistent with the maximum rates of tax prescribed in Schedule III of the Nyasaland Town Municipalities Act, 1933. It is for the administrative section to verify these rates with reference to the maximum rates permissible under the Municipal Act

14) The Bye-Laws are otherwise in order and may be approved
